SOFTSKILL COURSE OFFERED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH (SESSION: 2022- 2023)

TOPIC- LEARNING SOFT SKILLS THROUGH ENGLISH LITERATURE

DATE: 02/02/2023 to 10/02/2023 (8 DAYS)

Time: 10:30 am to 2:30 pm

Credit Hours: 32

Semesters for which Course is offered- SEMESTER 2 AND SEMESTER 4

Patron: Dr Amit Kumar Chakrabarty, Principal, Turku Hansda Lapsa Hemram Mahavidyalay.

Course Coordinator and Speaker: Kyamalia Bairagya

Organising Members and Speakers: Bidyut Kumar Mondal

Oendri Chatteraj

Mrigen Mondal

Course Objectives

- 1. Introducing the participants to the very interesting concept of acquiring the knowledge of various soft skills through a relevant set of texts chosen from the vast range of literary productions in English Literature.
- 2. To help the students identify and acknowledge the necessity of cultivating soft skills in various aspects of their lives. Although a prerequisite in the essential field of seeking employment, being students of literature the need to be able to develop soft skills among them as essential qualities in communication and writing is also another objective of this Course.
- 3. Special emphasis will be given on the chosen texts and a contextual reading of these texts will also be done by the respective teachers of the Course.

Course Outcomes

It is expected that the students and teachers will develop a better understanding of the need to develop soft skills in their day to day activities with the aim of enhancing the teaching learning process. The students will hopefully be able to grapple with new and unknown texts lying outside their syllabus and discover about their application in the world outside their educational institution and the significance of various soft skills found in the select group of texts. It will also help them in the creative field of writing.

REPORT:

A Soft Skill Course on the topic 'Learning Soft Skills through English Literature' was arranged by the Faculty members of the English Department for the willing students of Sem 2 and Sem 4 in the academic session of 2022- 2023 in order to acquaint them with the various kind of soft skills that can also be learned from literary texts. The Course was of an 8 days and 32 hours tenure held from 2nd February 2023 to 10th February in this academic session. A total number of 24 students participated in the Course conducted chiefly by the teachers of the English Department.

It began with a lecture delivered by the Principal of this institution who elaborated on the topic of 'Communication Skills' while reading GB Shaw's text on 'Spoken English and Broken English' on the first day of the Course. The two other Soft Skill topics like 'Teamwork and Collaboration' and 'Emotional Intelligence' were taken up by Kyamalia Bairagya on the next two days of the Course by the reading of Rudyard Kipling's The Jungle Book and Daniel Defoe's Robinson Crusoe respectively. Bidyut Kumar Mondal spoke on the importance of Problem Solving from his reading of Frank Stockton's short story 'The Lady or the Tiger'. Oendri Chattoraj's interpretation of the topic of 'Time Management' took place through her reading of Anton Chekov's 'The Bet' which has the famous character of the Lawyer spend 20 years of his life in solitary confinement with the help of books. The soft skill of Adaptability was an appropriate topic taken up by Mrigen Mondal which could be interpreted from the kind of acceptance of fate which could be found in the characters of Maurya and her family. While teaching Coleridge's 'The Rime of the Ancient Mariner' Kyamalia Bairagya used her knowledge on Creativity to focus on the particular oft Skill. The final day was about a general discussion among students based on which the assessment sheet was made,

It was an experimental and innovative way of teaching the widely known Soft Skills through relevant texts in English Literature. The students enjoyed the Course as it was an interactive session for them. It equipped them with ideas on how to deal with various difficult and easy situation in life with grace and intelligence.

Report :

A 9 days (36 hours) Course on Spoken and Communicative English was organized by the Department of English faculties for willing College students under the guidance of IQAC and direction of the Head of the Institution in the academic session of 2021- 2022. It was an intra- College program which took place in the College premises from 16th April 2022 to 26th April 2022. A total number of 37 students benefitted from this Course.

After receiving permission from the Principal, a notice was circulated among the students to enlist the name of the participants for the Course. A few students from departments other than English had also enlisted themselves for the Course.

The entire Course was divided in nine days culminating into a total duration of 36 hours. All the faculties of the English Department were involved in the successful deliberation of the Course. The Principal of the institution was invited to commence the Course on the first day with his erudition on the subject of basic Communication skills in English. The next two days were a lot more interesting as the two faculties Bidyut Mondal and Mrigen Mondal were able to make use of innovative techniques like making the participants listen to English speaking sessions from Google and also hear sports Commentary to improve their language absorbing skills. The participants were made to use their internet enabled personal gadgets for this purpose. Since both reading and writing are two important aspects of learning to speak or communicate in good English, separate classes were kept in this Course to practice Reading and develop Basic English writing skills. Teaching Basic English Grammar was also a part of the Course which was handled well by Oendri Chatteraj and Kyamalia Bairagya. The Course ended with an interactive session involving the teachers and the participants were made to appear in small Viva voce session for a qualitative evaluation of their learning before the distribution of Certificates could take place.

It was an honest effort made by the teachers of the Department to enable the participants with the basic English speaking skills. Although a number of participants were from Departments other than English they also tried their best to learn about various the

SOFT-SKILL COURSE [A.Y. 2021-2022]

PHYSICAL FITNESS PROGRAM

Course Objectives and Course Outcomes

Course Name: Physical Fitness Program

Course Objective: To improve participants' overall physical fitness and well-being through a structured exercise program designed to enhance cardiovascular health, muscular strength, flexibility, and body composition.

Course Outcomes:

Improved Cardiovascular Health:

Participants will demonstrate increased cardiovascular endurance as measured by improvements in metrics such as VO<sub>2</sub> max, resting heart rate, and recovery time after exercise. Participants will report decreased feelings of fatigue during daily activities and improved stamina.

Increased Muscular Strength and Endurance:

Participants will show enhanced muscular strength through improvements in performance on exercises such as squats, push-ups, and lunges.

Participants will exhibit greater muscular endurance, as evidenced by their ability to sustain physical activity for longer durations without fatigue.

Enhanced Flexibility and Range of Motion:

Participants will demonstrate improved flexibility as measured by increased range of motion in major joints such as shoulders, hips, and hamstrings.

Participants will report reduced muscle tightness and stiffness, leading to enhanced mobility and decreased risk of injury.

Body Composition Improvement:

Participants will achieve reductions in body fat percentage through a combination of cardiovascular exercise, strength training, and dietary modifications.

Participants will experience increases in lean muscle mass, contributing to a more favorable body composition and improved overall appearance.

Health Behavior Change:

Participants will adopt healthier lifestyle habits, including regular exercise, balanced nutrition, adequate hydration, and sufficient rest and recovery.

Participants will demonstrate increased awareness of the importance of physical activity and its role in maintaining long-term health and wellness.

Psychological Well-being:

Participants will experience reduced levels of stress, anxiety, and depression as a result of regular physical activity, leading to improved mood and overall psychological well-being.

Participants will report increased self-confidence and self-esteem related to their physical capabilities and achievements in the program.

Long-Term Health Maintenance:

Participants will develop the knowledge and skills necessary to sustain their physical fitness gains beyond the duration of the program.

Participants will be empowered to continue leading active, healthy lifestyles and serve as positive role models within their communities.

By aligning course objectives with measurable outcomes, this physical fitness program aims to provide participants with tangible improvements in their health and well-being, both during the program and in the long term.
