REPORT

Goal

To provide economic assistance to the poor women of Santal community in our adopted village Managerpara

The context

Our college is situated at a place surrounded by backward Santal villages. The name of the College is after two famous Santal leaders Turku Hansda and Lapsa Hemram. We are therefore committed to do something for their development both financially and academically. Hence these innovative initiatives have been taken up. In the first Project technology and mechanism are provided to Santal women of the village Managerpara for making bio-degradable plates from dry Sal (Shorea robusta) leaves amply available in the nearby forest.

The Practice

The College has arranged a machine and also training for the poor Santal women for making bio-degradable plates of Sal leaves amply available in adjacent forests. The unemployed women sell these products in the nearby markets and support their families.

The college has also organized a training program on "Employability Training Program on Micro , Small & Medium Enterprises" the speaker was Tanmay Bramha , General Manager ,District Industries Centre , Suri , Birbhum.It was organized by Career Counselling Cell in collaboration with Directorate of Micro , Small & Medium Enterprises, Government of West Bengal ,NSS and IQAC on 15th March 2019. Mr Bramha taught them how to prepare sal plates out of sal leaves using the machine provided by the college from NSS Department. He also illuminates the tribal women villagers with the various schemes from the government and how to package and marketing strategies .With his guidance the tribal villagers keep continuing this project and earned some money , our NSS Volunteers monitors the project and guide them to continue this in near future.

Evidence of Success

Some of the women have been benefitted from this project. The plates so made in the machine can be sold in the local market in better price and creates an avenue for income. It thus assists villagers and students in economic emancipation and encourages them in professionalism.

The success of the project is not remarkable in terms of asset creation .We don't have proper mechanism and man power to locate the project till we tried our best to support them in all means. But it inspires the students to do something for their institution. It also makes all the members of the college -- from students to canteen man -- aware of sustainable habits of eco-friendly environment in the campus.
